Course Objective	To equip men to learn, love and live out God's words through inductive bible study. In particular, to encourage men to seek God wholeheartedly, guard their hearts against compromise, and walk faithfully under the reign of the true King.
Target Audience	Men who desire to grow in their understanding of God's Word, deepen their walk with Him, and learn to apply Scripture faithfully in daily life. No prior Bible study experience is required.
Synopsis	God intends His children to grow up – into mature disciples who live what they believe. James was written to believers scattered across the Roman world – stressed and tempted to chase status, speak sharply, or drift into “talk-only” religion. We'll learn how God uses trials to form endurance, how temptation works from the inside, and how genuine disciples witness through practical love, wise speech, humble peace-making, and prayerful perseverance. Expect Scripture-first discussion and clear steps for practical discipleship-making in everyday life.
